SERVED TIME FOR ANOTHER'S CRIME

JOHN SIMONS CLEARED OF DEED HE DID NOT COMMIT

ASSAULT STORY WASHED ASHORE AT OAKLAND

Vagrant's Confession, Written Before Suicide, Seemingly Removes Stain From Aged Man Convicted Ten Years Ago.

Oakland.—James Velle, a seaman who lives in an abandoned sloop on the shores of the cove at the foot of Fourteenth street in the Key route basin, recently found a bottle floating in the bay on which was scrawled, "To the Chief of Police."

Thinking it a joke, nothing was done until Policeman Holmberg came to his sloop to fish and was given the flask. Holmberg broke the bottle and found the alleged confession of J. Cameron, an "unfortunate road agent," acknowledging guilt of the assault committed on Joseph Batten-court, employed as a nightwatchman on the Meek ranch at San Lorenzo, March 21, 1914. The assault took place on the highway near San Lorenzo creek, for which John S. Simon, now 59 years old, served six years at San Quentin prison.

Simon was paroled in 1921 and has since been in seclusion on his brother's ranch near Hayward.

In his confession, Cameron described the scene of the attempted holdup and enumerated incidents that tend to give color to the confession, that it is genuine.

A jury convicted Simons after deliberating for five minutes. Batten-court identified Simons as his assailant, declared that Simons had been too friendly with Mrs. Batten-court to suit him and surrounded Simons with a net of strange circumstances.

Simons protested his innocence. He appealed his case twice to the higher courts. Both times his pleas were denied. On January 14, 1915, he entered San Quentin.

The district attorney that sent Simons to prison, W. H. L. Hynes, is now a successful criminal lawyer in Oakland. The judge, William H. Waste, who sentenced the man, is a supreme court justice. The jury is scattered.

FARM BUREAU CONTROL OF GRAINS SEEN IN PLAN

Chicago.—The announcement of the American Farm Bureau federation that a plan for producer control of certain factors of the grain marketing machinery had been submitted by unnamed interests recalled to leaders in the grain trade in Chicago persistent rumors of negotiations in this direction about a year ago. A careful estimate of the physical properties involved placed the figure at approximately $150,000,000 for the elevator properties and about $8,000,000 for the office equipment, wire facilities, board memberships, etc. These figures do not include the 5,000 country elevators already co-operatively owned, which would figure in the unified grain marketing system.

Trade estimates of the normal business volume in cash grain transactions of the five grain companies in recent years, place the figure well over one billion bushels annually.

NAVAL GUNS MAKE HISTORY IN TARGET PRACTICE RECORDS

Los Angeles.—Gunnery of America's most powerful sea fighter, the U. S. S. Maryland, established new navy target practice records. While official information on the record is lacking, it is known that new naval history was made at sea off Los Angeles harbor by the Maryland, when for the first time, 16-inch guns were used in firing at an invisible target twenty miles distant. Seaplanes, hovering like birds above the big dreadnaught, directed the firing. The success of the tests was said to be the greatest ever attained in naval aviation, as well as in gunnery.

More than seventy-five shots were fired with 2100-pound shells, but not a single accident of the slightest kind marred the target practice.

Britain's Agent Quits Mexico Laredo, Tex.—H. A. Cunard Cummins, charge des archives of the British Legation in the City of Mexico, crossed the border into the United States here and left immediately for San Antonio. He refused to comment as to whether or not his retirement from Mexico was voluntary. Cummins, charged by the Mexican government with relations with the insurgents, was ordered deported under the undesirable aliens law.

SLAYING OF JAPS INFLAMES NIPPON

WORK OF ASSASSIN BELIEVED DUE TO HATRED OF WHITES

JAPANESE NEWSPAPERS DENOUNCE AMERICANS

Inflammatory Articles Tend to Aggravate Already Delicate Situation Between Two Nations.—Velled Threats Against Americans.

London.—Japanese papers have published under flaming headlines the story of the murder of two Japanese in California, which have tended to greatly excite the people.

Apparently, it has been the intention to connect the killing with anti-Japanese sentiment, and these papers say there is talk of retaliation against United States citizens there.

Alleged cases are reported of Japanese servants leaving American homes for fear of bombing of these homes.

It is the belief here that should the idea that the crimes in California were from an anti-Japanese sentiment, many Americans in Japan may feel the weight of the avenging hand of the Nipponese.

Los Angeles.—Following a demand by U. Oyama, Japanese Consul-General, for a complete investigation into the mysterious murder of two Japanese near Fort MacArthur, another mutilated body of an unidentified Japanese man was discovered under the Colorado street bridge spanning the Arroyo Seco west of Pasadena.

Evidence that the murders had not been instigated for robbery was established when $26 and a gold watch were found on the third dead Japanese.

The third body was discovered by workmen digging beneath the Colorado bridge. It was evident, investigators say, the Japanese had been thrown from the structure.

The finding of this body indicates according to police, that the murders might be due to hatred of whites.

Near the bodies of the victims were five empty shells from a revolver. A few feet further on a clip from a German automatic pistol, containing nine loaded shells, was found.

TWO-MILLION-DOLLAR ROBBERY SOLVED BY POSTAL AGENTS

Chicago.—One of the most daring train robberies ever perpetrated, the holdup of a Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul mail train near Chicago the night of June 12 by eight bandits, who obtained $2,075,000 in cash and securities, has been solved. Max Greenberg, said to be a member of Egan's Rats, St. Louis gangsters, planned the robbery at East St. Louis and had the assistance of Carlo and Ernest Fontano, Chicago gunmen. Three brothers, besides the two Fontano brothers, participated in the robbery. Four of these are in custody, part of the loot has been recovered and a nationwide search is on for the missing members of the gang.

An official statement placed the loot obtained by the robbers at $2,000,000 in securities and $75,000 in cash. A little more than $20,000 in cash has been recovered.

CLOUDBURSTS, CYCLONES, HEAT CAUSE DEATH AND SUFFERING

Chicago.—Windstorms approaching cyclonic fury, cloudbursts and heavy rains menaced life and property in sections of Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana and Iowa, doing damage estimated at $3,000,000, after a hot wave over these and other states of the east and middle west had taken a toll of lives. In which Detroit experienced the hottest June day in fifty years, and eight persons in Chicago were prostrated, where two died.

Two were missing at Racine, Wis., after a cloudburst. Fifty-six buildings at Franksville, Wis., were razed. Heavy rain and wind in the neighborhood of Elgin, Ill., did great damage to surrounding towns.

Fire Destroys Oregon Town

Marshfield.—A gasoline lamp explosion in the Klahn building caused a fire which wiped out part of the business district of the town of Empire, near here. The fire spread quickly to adjoining structures. The North Bend fire department arrived on the scene an hour after the fire started and with the aid of the U. S. S. dredge Colonel P. S. Michie, which turned a stream of water on the blazing buildings, prevented the flames from destroying the entire town. A high wind made fire fighting difficult.

FARMS TO BE RESTOCKED WITH HIGH PRODUCING ANIMALS

G. H. Hecke, Director, State Department of Agriculture, who advises farmers to replace cattle killed in eradication of foot and mouth disease with only high producing grade and pure-bred animals.

Sacramento, Cal.—California will attain a higher standard for its livestock if the advice of G. H. Hecke, Director, State Department of Agriculture is followed in restocking those California farms which have been depleted of animals during the recent foot and mouth disease outbreak.

With the cooperation of Sam H. Greene, manager California Dairy Council, the State Department of Agriculture has started a movement for using only grade and pure-bred animals, free from tuberculosis, and big producers, in restocking farms. Discussing this, Mr. Hecke said:

"Many farms are now ready, or will shortly be ready, for testing and restocking and it will be greatly to the advantage of the owners, if before final arrangements are made and animals purchased, the matter of breeding, productive capacity, and tuberculosis be given thorough consideration."

"These two important subjects should be given the utmost attention as either one, or both, may be the cause of success or failure."

"In the light of our knowledge on the subject of good animal breeding it would seem that advice to dairymen and other livestock men who are reentering the business would be superfluous. But we know how easily we may be tempted by price and other conditions. We should remember that while good breeding must be paid for to start with, it is cheapest in the long run. It should also be remembered that a poor producing animal is dear at any price."

"Profitable animals cannot be selected on general appearance. Production records are the only reliable guide in the relation of dairy stock."

"My advice to those persons who now contemplate restocking is to select their animals carefully and so far as possible, if other conditions warrant it, animals of pure breeding should be selected, at least for foundation stock."

Mr. Hecke further stated that the subject of tuberculosis is one about which he would also sound a note of warning. His advice is to obtain and start with animals free from this disease.

"Buy these animals from known tuberculosis-free herds or from herds in which the number of reactors has been kept down to a minimum," Mr. Hecke urged. "In all events, be sure the animals have successfully passed the tuberculin test before purchase. The possession of a tuberculosis-free herd is an acquisition well worth any reasonable effort and will prove a source of profit to its owner."

COLE-SHEARER

Robert A. Shearer, of Campbell, and Elizabeth Cole, of Cambridge, Mass., were married in that city Tuesday, June 17, and are expected here at any time.

Miss Cole spent one season in Campbell and was employed in the office of the J. C. Ainsley Co. where she and Mr. Shearer became acquainted.

"Jock" as he is familiarly known, has been in Scotland for some months and the wedding was scheduled for his return. Mr. Shearer is one of the Ainsley Pkg. Co. force and will continue to make Campbell his home.

CAMPBELL PLAYS RINGER TEAM

Campbell can boast of some "shure-nuff" ringers. There is an unusually large group of expert horseshoe pitchers in our district and they are preparing for a real contest with the San Jose team there tomorrow.

Campbell will be represented by Messrs. Torrey, Suggs, Mirrasseau, Grant and Countryman from Union division and Ben McCaughy, E. W. Ohlen, Fred Lindholm, Glen Ullom, C. Ullom, H. G. Weste and E. E. Weeks, of Campbell. After watching our team throw a few ringers one can readily surmise that San Jose will need to call in all its "pinch hitters."

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hoeler, nee Lucille Strong, are the proud parents of a daughter, born Wednesday, June 25. "Grand-daddy" Strong says she has a lusty howl.

JONES-PLUMM PRETTY HOME WEDDING

June the month of weddings was chosen by Miss Marion B. Jones as the time for her nuptials and Tuesday afternoon she and her betrothed, Clarence W. Plumm, were united in marriage.

The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Jones, on Alice Way, Rev. John Collins of the Episcopal church of Los Gatos reading the beautiful service.

Following the ceremony, light refreshments were served the company of immediate relatives and friends. Later the wedding couple left for the high Sierras for their honeymoon, after which they plan to make their home here.

The bride and groom were attended by Miss Irma McGowan, and Douglas Jones, brother of the bride.

The wedding gown was of special interest, being a wonderful Chinese silk shawl, originally belonging to the bride's great grandmother, who gave it to Miss Jones as a wedding present. A skillful dressmaker draped and fashioned it into a charming gown without cutting, so that it is beautiful for either purpose. The bouquet was of sweet peas and ferns.

Campbell friends extend congratulations and good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Plumm.

George Benner, who has been physical instructor in the Panama school the past year, returned last week and has gone to Berkeley where he is attending summer school.

GORDON SMITH WEDS MISS ROWEN

Miss Eunice Rowen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Rowen of Palo Alto, and Charles Gordon Smith, son of Mrs. J. Fred Smith, of Campbell, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents at Palo Alto, Saturday afternoon, June 21. The wedding was simple and beautiful. To the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, Mr. Smith, with his best man, Mr. Archie Steindorf, of Campbell, took his place in front of a bank of pink gladioli, underneath a wedding bell of exquisite roses. The bride entered on her father's arm, attended by Miss Bessie Baird, who was gowned in pink chiffon.

The bride wore a lovely gown of white georgette, trimmed with Spanish lace. Her wedding veil was arranged in a coronet, and caught with orange blossoms. The bride's mother and her sister and girl friends stood in a group near her during the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Whistler, of the Presbyterian church of Palo Alto, who used the solemn and beautiful service arranged by Dr. Van Dyke. After the ceremony the guests enjoyed a delightful and informal hour, during which dainty refreshments were served. The bride and groom were showered with congratulations and good wishes--and later with rice. Mr. and Mrs. Smith received many beautiful presents.

Mr. Gordon Smith is a graduate of C. U. H. S. 1918, and of Stanford 1922. He is now with the S. S. Smith Machinery Company in San Francisco, but he and his bride will make their home in Palo Alto.

MR. BARN BURNS

Mr. A. Mark, near Cambrian station, had the misfortune to lose his barn and contents Saturday by fire. He had cleaned the dry grass away from the building for several feet and sprinkled the ground, then set fire to the grass. Within a few minutes he looked around to see the interior of the barn filled with flames and smoke, entirely beyond putting out. The only explanation for the catastrophe which he can find is that sparks must have blown thru the cracks in the barn wall and fallen into a quantity of hay which burst into flames.

Mr. Mark estimates his loss at something over three hundred dollars.

SOME RUBBER

With Ford Car No. 10,000,000 now in service and making a trans-continental trip from New York to Chicago over the Lincoln highway, the man who enjoys figuring can have a world of practice.

The other day one gifted gentleman worked out the tire problem. He figured that the 40 million tires used on 10 million Fords, if stacked up would make a rubber column 2,000 miles high.

Then, looking for road trouble, he punctured each of the tires, and then figured that one man working eight hours a day except Sundays and holidays and repairing a tire every five minutes would finally finish the job in 400 years.

Skate Made of Glass

Cinderella's glass slipper bids fair to become something more than a myth, though Cinderella will not now need a fairy godmother to furnish her with a coach in which to reach her home swiftly. Her slippers will answer the purpose. The present Cinderella's glass slipper is a skate, of which the upper part resembles a slipper, open behind, with a split "lace-up" heel cap. The skate is of glass, hardened by a certain process to the consistency of steel. Every part of the skate is of glass, from the slipper-like upper to the glittering blade. It is asserted that the glass blades are much more slippery than steel ones and that they will run almost as smooth as well over rough, snow-covered ice as on a smooth ice sheet, and also will go easily over inequalities, twigs and other obstructions. They are made very sharp and are so extremely hard that it is almost impossible to blunt them. They are unlike steel skates in that they never need grinding and never rust.

Things We Used to Do

You had to tip the body over sideways when you wanted to get at the engine on an automobile.

You entered the tonneau by way of a door on the rear of cars.

You stopped several times on a short trip and shut off your engine to allow drivers of horses to get past without having a run-away.

You did not have any driver's licenses or numbers on cars.

All tires were changed on the road and pumped up by hand.

Tops, windshields and headlights had to be bought extra.

Gasoline sold at retail for nine cents a gallon.

Cars were only used in the summer time.

One-cylinder cars were popular.

Cars cranked on the side.

There were no traffic cops.

If you made a trip to Bridgeport and returned and did not have engine or tire trouble, you were not believed upon your return.

Cars steered with a handle instead of a wheel.—New Haven Register.

DECLARES PUBLICAN OF INCOME TAX DANGEROUS

Washington.—Publicity of income tax returns, provided in the tax bill passed by the senate, may not only jeopardize the small business man by revealing the condition of his business to his competitors but "might undermine confidence in the whole system of income taxes," Secretary of Commerce Hoover declared in a statement. Contrary to the belief of those who fostered the provision, it will add nothing to revenue returns, Hoover said.

The provision is being debated by the senate and house conferees on the measure. The house strongly objects to it.

THE PROBLEM OF LIFE

Ninety-five per cent, or more, of the time of the average person is spent in his own community. Therefore, it is all important that his environment be enriched to its maximum. Here he is born, and here he dies. The question is—in the meantime, does he really live? Are you living in this community, or just stopping here? What shall be the spirit of our search for the solution of life's problems, or shall we search at all for a solution?

No one, of course, has a monopoly upon the search. The best minds of the world are centered upon a means of bringing forth a remedy. Roots have been dug up, barks boiled, and balms extracted; and with it all, some palliation to the fervor has resulted, but still there is work for us all.

BALANCE AND POISE

You may be sore on the world at large, you may have your cares and woes; you may fret of the things that might have been, you may make up a list of foes. You may be devoid of beauty and charm, or lack what others call joys; but still you're a well rounded man or maid, if you have but Balance and Poise.

You may take a prize at the beauty show, or win in the fastest race; you may paint, or write what the world would know, or hoard wealth in the market place. But the finest thing of life to find, for grownups or girls or boys, is a heart that's pure and a noble mind, and braced by Balance and Poise.

If they ever have school by radio, the problem of the small boy who wants to go fishing is solved. His rod and line will serve as aerial and ground.

Next to sitting in the audience at a home talent show, about the biggest kick to get out of life is performing in one.

ARTHUR FREE TO STAY ON JOB

Congressman A. M. Free, of this district, has announced that he will keep his office in Washington open during recess of Congress in order that persons who have business, which they desire attended to, with governmental departments may have the assistance of his office.

Congressman Free is to be detained in Washington on some business rather vital to the fruit growers of California. One of the Government bureaus had a circular printed, entitled, "Directions for Examining All Canned Food Before Use," and in the circular some unfortunate phrases were used, which might frighten people to such an extent that they would refuse to buy canned fruits and vegetables, lest they might be poisoned. Mr. Free has taken the matter up with the department and has secured a temporary suspension of the issuance of the circular, and is endeavoring to persuade the Department to change the wording so that people will have no fear of using canned fruits and vegetables.

He also has under discussion, with the Department of Agriculture, the matter of further experimentation in shipping to eastern markets California fresh-pre-cooled fruit.

These, and other departmental and committee matters, will detain Mr. Free in Washington for some weeks, after which he will come out to California in order to meet the people of his district.

Wedded In Jail

Fresno.—The Fresno county jail was the scene of a wedding ceremony in which Ramona Preciado and A. M. Carrasco of Sanger were the principals. The wedding was near when the prospective groom was sentenced on a traffic charge. Determined not to let the jail stop her marriage plans, the bride obtained a license and summoned Justice George Washington Smith, who performed the ceremony in the jail office, with Undersheriff Albert Blasigame and Miss Bertha Storey, health nurse, as witnesses.

Clytemnestra's Humor

Sophocles makes Electra describe Clytemnestra as "laughing triumphantly" over the murder of Agamemnon; but Electra was a prejudiced witness. Killing an undesired husband is no laughing matter, though triumph over its accomplishment—when failure means death—is a legitimate emotion. Clytemnestra was a singularly august and composed sinner. Not from her did Orestes and Electra inherit their nervous systems; and not on their testimony should we credit her with an excess of humor alike ill-timed and unbecoming.—Agnes Repplier in the Yale Review.

Hundreds homeless, two hurt and a

Answer that Took the Apple

Not long ago "Pep," the official publication of the Central New York Press Association, offered a nice red apple for the best way to get a nonadvertiser to advertise.
Among the hundreds of answers which were submitted, there was but one choice for first place.
This was it:

"Shoot him, and his estate will have to pay for the notice to creditors at the new legal rate. Please send the apple."

Likens Modern Life to Piecework in Factory

"Life is getting more and more like piecework in a factory," says Dr. Mary Dunning Rose, president of the Women's Medical society of the state of New York.

"You push on to see if you can't do just a little extra all the time. And there is always that push to do more.

"If you drive a motorcar, and many people do, your nerves are shocked every time you take the wheel.

"Women need more sleep. Eight to ten hours. Some are better off with twelve.

"The fact that so many in New York city eat in restaurants accounts for the fact that our death rate is lower than elsewhere in the state. People don't order or eat more than they need in a restaurant. Operated under the board of health, public places must have fresh, good food, not the spoiled products they sold 20 years ago."

Doctor Rose recommends her own profession as a particularly satisfying one for her own sex, since it demands qualifications usually found in women, patience, sympathy and attention to detail—qualifications which will not be wasted in such a career.

"We need more doctors," continued Doctor Rose. "All those I know are busy. Of course, it takes years of preparation, and a business career seems to bring results more quickly."

Journal.

Why pay tribute to a superstition?

ZEROLENE- LUBRICATED CARS WIN SIX OUT OF SEVEN YOSEMITE ECONOMY RUN TROPHIES

Does Zerolene "stand up"? The drivers of the four cars that won six of the seven trophies in the 1924
Los Angeles-Camp Curry (Yosemite) Economy Run say so.

Of the five Zerolene-lubricated cars entered in the race, four carried off prizes, including the sweepstakes won by the Overland, model 92. Six of the seven trophies offered went to cars using Zerolene. And incidentally, the oil consumption recorded by the official checks was remarkably small.

The sweepstakes winner writes:

"In spite of the intense heat to which the motor was subjected, when the ultimate check was made I found greatly to my surprise that the gauge showed absolutely no use of oil whatsoever. I attribute my success in winning the 1924 Yosemite Economy Sweepstakes greatly to the use of Zerolene in the motor and Red Crown gasoline in the tank."—Joe Bozzani.

Isn't it time to dismiss forever the superstition that there is something mysteriously "better" about eastern oils, merely because they cost more and are made in the East? Experienced drivers, out to make economy records, don't share that superstition—why should you?

Insist on Zerolene—a better oil—
even if it does cost less.
